

Jazzee Rozier

marsonfireart@gmail.com Cleveland, OH

Summary

Motivated young professional interested in studio art-making, public speaking, conducting and managing events, and participating in various community-wide events.

Highlights

- Ability to multitask
- Self motivation and accountability
- Experience in art project management
- Ability to conduct thorough research
- Verbal and written communication skills
- Supervisory experience

Accomplishments

- Recipient of the Helen Greene Perry Travel Scholarship of the Cleveland Institute of Art's 2025 graduating class
- Accepted work and spoke on an artist talk panel for juried Student Independent Exhibition '79 at the Cleveland Institute of Art
- Curated and installed Back in the Dayz exhibition for the Black Scholars and Artists club at the Cleveland Institute of Art
- Associated and photographed advocate for Issue 55: Vote for Arts & Culture assembled by the Vote for Arts organization
- Creativity Works program acceptance and partnership with the LGBT Community Center of Greater Cleveland for a mural and solo exhibition
- Website and marketing group coordination for Cleveland Institute of Art's Ready, Set, Relay! exhibition at the Progressive Insurance Main Campus One

Experience

- Security Team Member 11/27/2024 - Present
Cleveland Botanical Gardens - Holden Forests & Gardens
Constant communication and active attention to all guests and events within the Gardens. Multitasking with event coordination, event set-up, connecting guests to other departments or events as needed, delegating tasks to other team members, and constant attention to detail when it comes to updates, announcements, or protocols.
- Drawing Guide 2/14/2024 - 5/30/2024
Cleveland Museum of Contemporary Art
Researching the studio practice of visiting artist, Manabu Ikeda, and educating the public on the technicalities of his art practice and materials as a fellow drawing artist. This also included close attention to detail on how he personally utilized his art materials.
- Studio Assistant 11/09/2023 - 5/30/2025
Cleveland Institute of Art
Within the drawing and printmaking departments, assisting with class projects, lesson demonstrations, and cleaning/reorganizing stations and materials during school breaks. Assisted with marketing ideas and community involvement through various studio activities and meetings.

Education

- Bachelor of Fine Arts in Drawing May 2025
Cleveland Institute of Art
- High School Diploma June 2021
Charles F. Brush High School